

CAREER REPORT ASSIGNMENT

ALWAYS SITE YOUR SOURCES OF INFORMATION: (USE AT LEAST TWO SOURCES)

Example: Occupational Outlook Handbook, date, volume #, and page #.

This is a good source to use: www.blc.gov/oco or www.iseek.org

ALWAYS:

Use complete sentences when writing your paragraphs to answer all ten questions. WRITE AT LEAST 3 SENTENCES FOR EACH QUESTION. Number each question as you complete the assignment. Please summarize your information; do NOT COPY directly from your source. PLEASE TYPE YOUR ASSIGNMENT.

1. Give the name of the job and the description or job duties performed.
2. Give the educational requirements for entry level and to advance in this career.
3. List personal skills and requirements (personality traits and skills required).
4. Salary (how much money you can expect to earn).
5. What are some advantages or benefits associated with this career?
6. What are some to the disadvantages or difficult parts of this career?
7. Outlook for the career in the future. What is the demand expected now and in the future?
8. What are the promotion or advancement opportunities/
9. Discuss related careers.
10. Evaluate this career or job for you personally. Does it fit with your aptitudes, skills and interests? Would you like this career? Why or why not? Why did you select this career to research?

11

The more you write for each topic, the better your opportunity for a good grade. Write a minimum of three sentences per question.