

Banking, Checking, and Debit Evaluation

Name:

Match the terms at the right to the definitions at the left. Write the letter of the definition in the box to the left of the term. 1 point each.

- |                                |  |
|--------------------------------|--|
| _____ 1. Restrictive           | A. Check that has cleared.   |
| _____ 2. FDIC                  | B. Service that allows bills to be paid automatically from your account.                                 |
| _____ 3. Pay Roll Card         | C. Moving money from accounts by computer.   |
| _____ 4. Currency              | D. Option of having your employer deposit your paycheck into your account.                               |
| _____ 5. Payee                 | E. Bank account that allows depositors to write checks to make payments.                                 |
| _____ 6. Statement             | F. Plastic card for depositing wages.  |
| _____ 7. Checking Account      | G. Endorsement that states "For Deposit Only".   |
| _____ 8. Check Register        | H. Bank or credit union's record of transactions.  |
| _____ 9. Account Balance       | I. Machine for making deposits, withdrawals, transfers, and checking balances.                           |
| _____ 10. Overdrawing          | J. Cards used to make purchases; payments are electronically transferred from checking to store account. |
| _____ 11. Endorsement          | K. Organization created by the federal government that insures deposits.                                 |
| _____ 12. Cancelled Check      | L. Person named on the check.  |
| _____ 13. EFT                  | M. Paper money and coins.  |
| _____ 14. ATM                  | N. Booklet used for recording account transactions.  |
| _____ 15. PIN                  | O. Secret number that identifies you to the ATM.   |
| _____ 16. Direct Deposit       | P. Total amount in an account at a given time.   |
| _____ 17. Debit Cards          | Q. Writing a check for more money than you have in your account.   |
| _____ 18. Automatic Withdrawal | R. Signature on the back of check.   |

34 - 40. See attached activity and correctly record account transactions.

